Objective

As a psychology student, I prefer to know human behaviour first and then proceed with any judgements. One of my passions is reading and writing novels and ebooks. I particularly enjoy editing and crafting stories—it's a hobby I love. My main goal is to delve into the emotional side of individuals. I believe it's crucial for people to embrace and love who they truly are deep down. I aim to help others realize that loving themselves for who they are is incredibly important.
